Liberty Center School

Liberty Center, Ohio

This is the present building layout of the Liberty Center Local Schools. The school system began with a four room building, built in 1886, which is still in use. Additions were made to the original building in 1925, 1937, and 1953. A new elementary building was erected in 1960 and began use in 1961.

Our school system has grown considerably since that first building in 1886 and it will continue to grow and progress through the years.

Class History

Starting on our four-year journey, we had 57 members representing our class. Our class officers for the year were: President, Dick Reece; Vice-President, George Westhoven; Secretary, Barry Sharpe; Treasurer, Tom Murdock; News Reporter, Lorrinda Spiess. Our Student Council representatives were Karen Demaline and Joe Brewster. Our class was well represented by Karen Demaline as our Homecoming attendant, escorted by Lyle Smith. Our Carnival King and Queen candidates were Ila Mae McLaughlin and Larry Smith. We were very pleased when Ila Mae was crowned Carnival Queen. Our class advisors were Mrs. Heising and Mr. Clemons.

On the second year of our journey we had 52 members. We elected the following as class officers: President, Jim Murdock; Vice-President, Jim Hogrefe; Secretary-Treasurer, Mike Carpenter, Newsreporter, Larry Spiess. Our Student Council Representatives were Karen Roster and Joe Brewster. Karen Roster was Homecoming attendant with Ronnie Hefflinger as her escort. Paula Kimberly and Stacy Overmier were our Carnival queen and king candidates. Paula was chosen queen.

Highlights of our sophomore year were the presentation of our class play and the choosing of our class rings.

Mrs. Cortright and Mr. Marshaus were our sponsors.

The third year of our journey found our class with 46 members. We were well represented by, President, Paul Kimberly; Vice-President, Jim Hogrefe; Secretary, Phil Parsons; Treasurer, Carol Sherman; Newsreporter, Sharon Soles. Billie Jo Fisher and Joe Brewster served as Student Council Representatives. Sharon Soles was our representative at the Homecoming game and dance with Stacy Overmier as her escort. Heila Engler and Jim Hogrefe were our king and queen candidates at the school carnival. Neila was chosen as carnival queen.

Our class worked very hard selling Christmas cards and operating the lunch stand in order to raise money for the Junior-Senior Prom, Tropical Paradise.

Billie Jo Fisher and Paula Kimberly were the delegates to Girls' State. Kenny Myles was delegate to Boys' State.

Miss Sherman and Mr. Krauss were our class advisors.

The most eventful and last year of our four-year journey was enjoyed by the members of our Senior class. Our officers for the last year were: President, Jim Hogrefe; Vice-President, George Murrey; Secretary, Dennie Sperry; Treasurer, Dick Reece; and Newsreporter, George Westhoven. Our representatives to the Student Council were Joe Brewster and Paula Kimberly. Joe Brewster served as Student Council Representative all four years. Both the Carnival King and Queen were elected from our class. They were Kathy Thomson and George Westhoven. The 1963 Homecoming Queen was Billie Joe Fisher. Lyle Smith was her escort. Paula Kimberly was our Homecoming attendant and George Westhoven was her escort.

Miss Saneholtz and Mr. Rickly were our class advisors.

Highlights of our Senior Year were the presentation of the Senior class play, "Young Dr. Young," the Senior class trip to Columbus, and the Prom the Juniors gave us, Apple Blossom.

As we look back over the twelve years most of us have spent at Liberty Center, each one of us have several things that we remember most, some are happy moments, and others are sad. It seems like we just started into the first grade, but now high school is left behind, but we shall not forget.

Tri M

The Tri M is an honor club in the music department. To belong to this club you must be asked to join and then you are voted on by the club members. After this you must perform before your parents, go through the ceremony and perform before the student body.

SEATED are: Cathy Houts, Mrs. Strock -- advisor, Mr. Ewing -- advisor, Susie Sharpe, Cecily Strock, and Lynn Morrison. ROW TWO: Carol Sherman, Dick Reece, Candy Burkett, Jo Ann Shockey, Karen Mires, Barbara Dulle, Carol Guyer, Ed Heckler, Brenda Bowers, Phil Saneholtz, Susan Phillips and Ray Showman.

The Freshman Triple Trio, largest of the school ensemble groups, received an Excellent rating at Junior High District Competition, May 4. During the year they also sang for elementary and school Easter chapel services and for a number of special services in the churches of the community.

The Sophomore Sextette has been active in school and community service this year. Besides receiving an Excellent rating in High School District Competition, March 2, they took part in a large number of church services, an interdenominational special service, the National Honor Society Induction Ceremony, and closed the year by presenting a group of songs at the Alumni banquet program.

The Junior Sextette is composed of girls who take a prominent part in all school musical groups, as well as other school activities. They received a "Good" rating at contest.

The Senior Trio, with Karen Mires as accompanist, made its first appearance last fall at the Carnival program. They also appeared at the Band Banquet, and received an "Excellent" rating at District Contest. Closing their school year they sang for the evening of one-act plays and for Commencement exercises.

This year a Dance Band was added to the music curriculum. It performed at the Hamler exchange concert, the P. T. A., Christmas Party, the One Act Plays and at a special concert.
